Welcoming Spring!

Author: Thăng Võ

Spring arrives, bringing lush greenery and abundance.
Apricot blossoms burst forth, captivating the earth and sky.
The spring breeze blows gently everywhere.
Hundreds of flowers bud, brightening life.
Peach blossoms bloom profusely everywhere.
Birds chirp merrily, filling the air with spring melodies.
The heart is overflowing with longing.
New year is time for reunion, with sticky rice cakes and gatherings.
Fireworks crackle here and there.
Songs are sung, filled with hope.
Praying for a peaceful new year.
Prosperous homes, abundant love.
Wishing you a happy New Year, a joyful spring reunion.
Peace and fulfillment, overflowing with affection.
Spring arrives, singing songs of gratitude.
Spring love blossoms, poetic verses are sown.

Dear Employees of Thanh Cong Textile and Garment Company,

As the year draws to a close and spring approaches, our hearts are filled with feelings of reunion, excitement, and hope for a prosperous New Year. Tet (Lunar New Year) is not only a time for rest and family reunions, but also a time for us to reflect on the past year with gratitude and appreciation. It has been a year full of challenges but also many successes. The entire employees of the Company have continuously strived, overcome difficulties, and achieved remarkable results.

Throughout the past year, amidst the hustle and bustle of work and the pressures and challenges of a volatile economy, the textile and garment export industry in general, and Thanh Cong Textile and Garment Company in particular, have faced numerous difficulties. However, with the dedicated efforts of the leaders and entire employees, the Company has continuously strived to overcome all difficulties, maintaining its position, developing its internal strengths, and fostering creativity in its work. Each person strives to complete their tasks to the best of their ability, constantly innovating and improving, proposing new solutions to enhance productivity and product quality. The days of diligent work, the technical innovations, and the tireless efforts of each member have contributed to the company's overall success. In the busy and hectic work environment, we maintain our willpower and spirit of unity, trusting in the leadership's capabilities to overcome all challenges and work together towards the Company's common goals.

We have gone through a challenging but also very proud year. The achievements, the projects completed on schedule, and the successful cooperation agreements are clear evidence of the strength, willpower, sense of responsibility, and love of work of our cohesive team. As the final moments of the old year draw to a close and we prepare for Tet, we must express our deepest gratitude to all our dedicated colleagues, those who have supported each other in their work, our trusted partners, and our loyal customers who have placed their trust in us, contributing to job creation and income for our employees. We also thank the leadership for their steady guidance and for always creating favorable conditions for each individual employee to be creative, develop their strengths, contribute, and shine, helping to build and develop the company into an even stronger entity.

In these last days of the old year, the atmosphere in the offices and factories is more vibrant than ever. Everyone is busy completing tasks with the highest sense of responsibility, cleaning up the factories, and preparing to welcome Tet in a joyful, bustling atmosphere full of hope. Laughter, well wishes, and shared moments among colleagues contributed to a warmer and more affectionate atmosphere than ever before. Everyone was focused on a common goal: welcoming a new year filled with faith, luck, success, and happiness.

In the eager anticipation of the new spring, looking forward to the coming year, we look towards even greater hopes and dreams. We hope that in this new year, all our work will be smooth and successful, and all our plans will be fulfilled as we wish. We wish for the good health of all our employees, and for a spirit of dedication to work. We hope that each of us will always feel proud to be a part of the Thanh Cong Textile and Garment family, contributing to building a stronger and more prosperous Company.

In the warm atmosphere of spring approaching, we would like to extend our most sincere New Year wishes to all employees of the Company: May every family have a joyful, peaceful, and fulfilling Tet holiday. May all our dreams and plans come true. We hope that the new year will bring new joys, new successes, and remarkable progress on our journey towards celebrating the Company's 50th anniversary.

We sincerely thank all of you for your companionship and dedication to the Company's sustainable development over the past year. We hope that together we will continue to overcome all challenges, open up new opportunities, and build a bright and prosperous future.

Happy New Year – Welcome to Spring!

- Spring

Spring arrives at the doorstep
Wearing a new, elegant, and fresh dress
Outside, flowers bloom all over the yard
The spring breeze is gentle, pure and innocent
Since we became bound by fate
Spring is a whole realm of shimmering beauty
The house is meticulously cared for, becoming even more beautiful
Filled with warmth and love
Remembering every early morning
Carrying you through the streets... searching for Spring
You bring back joys
Making our little house vibrant and bustling
The altar is solemnly arranged
Full of the scent of Tet visiting our home
A melodious spring love song
From your sparkling eyes
Spring passes, Spring returns so quickly
Still filled with the same joyful dreams as before
Waiting anxiously for the New Year's Eve
Hands clasped tightly, eyes smiling.

- Spring has arrived

Spring arrives, the peach blossoms bloom brightly
Swaying in the sun, welcoming the New Year
Nightingales sing joyfully
Fragrance of flowers fills the air...
The wind rustles softly
The spring sun shines gently, the earth and sky sing
Tender, affectionate, and tender
I give you all my love
Spring speaks of so many things
Burning desires on cold winter afternoons
Shy cheeks blushing
Enchanting eyes, passionate kisses exchanged!

- Spring of Love

Spring arrives, all things are reborn
The earth and sky are bright, filled with love and affection
Those who are still struggling far and wide
Long to return to their homeland for reunion
To cast away the hardships of the days
Beautiful dreams, building up the homeland
Sharing warmth and affection with each other
Wishing each other happiness, peace and joy in every home
Let's sing the joyful spring song
Welcoming the new spring, everyone is warm and prosperous.
